[redacted] the Digital Britain process and have made clear our support for the overriding [redacted]

The Point
37 North Wharf Road
Paddington
London W2 1AG

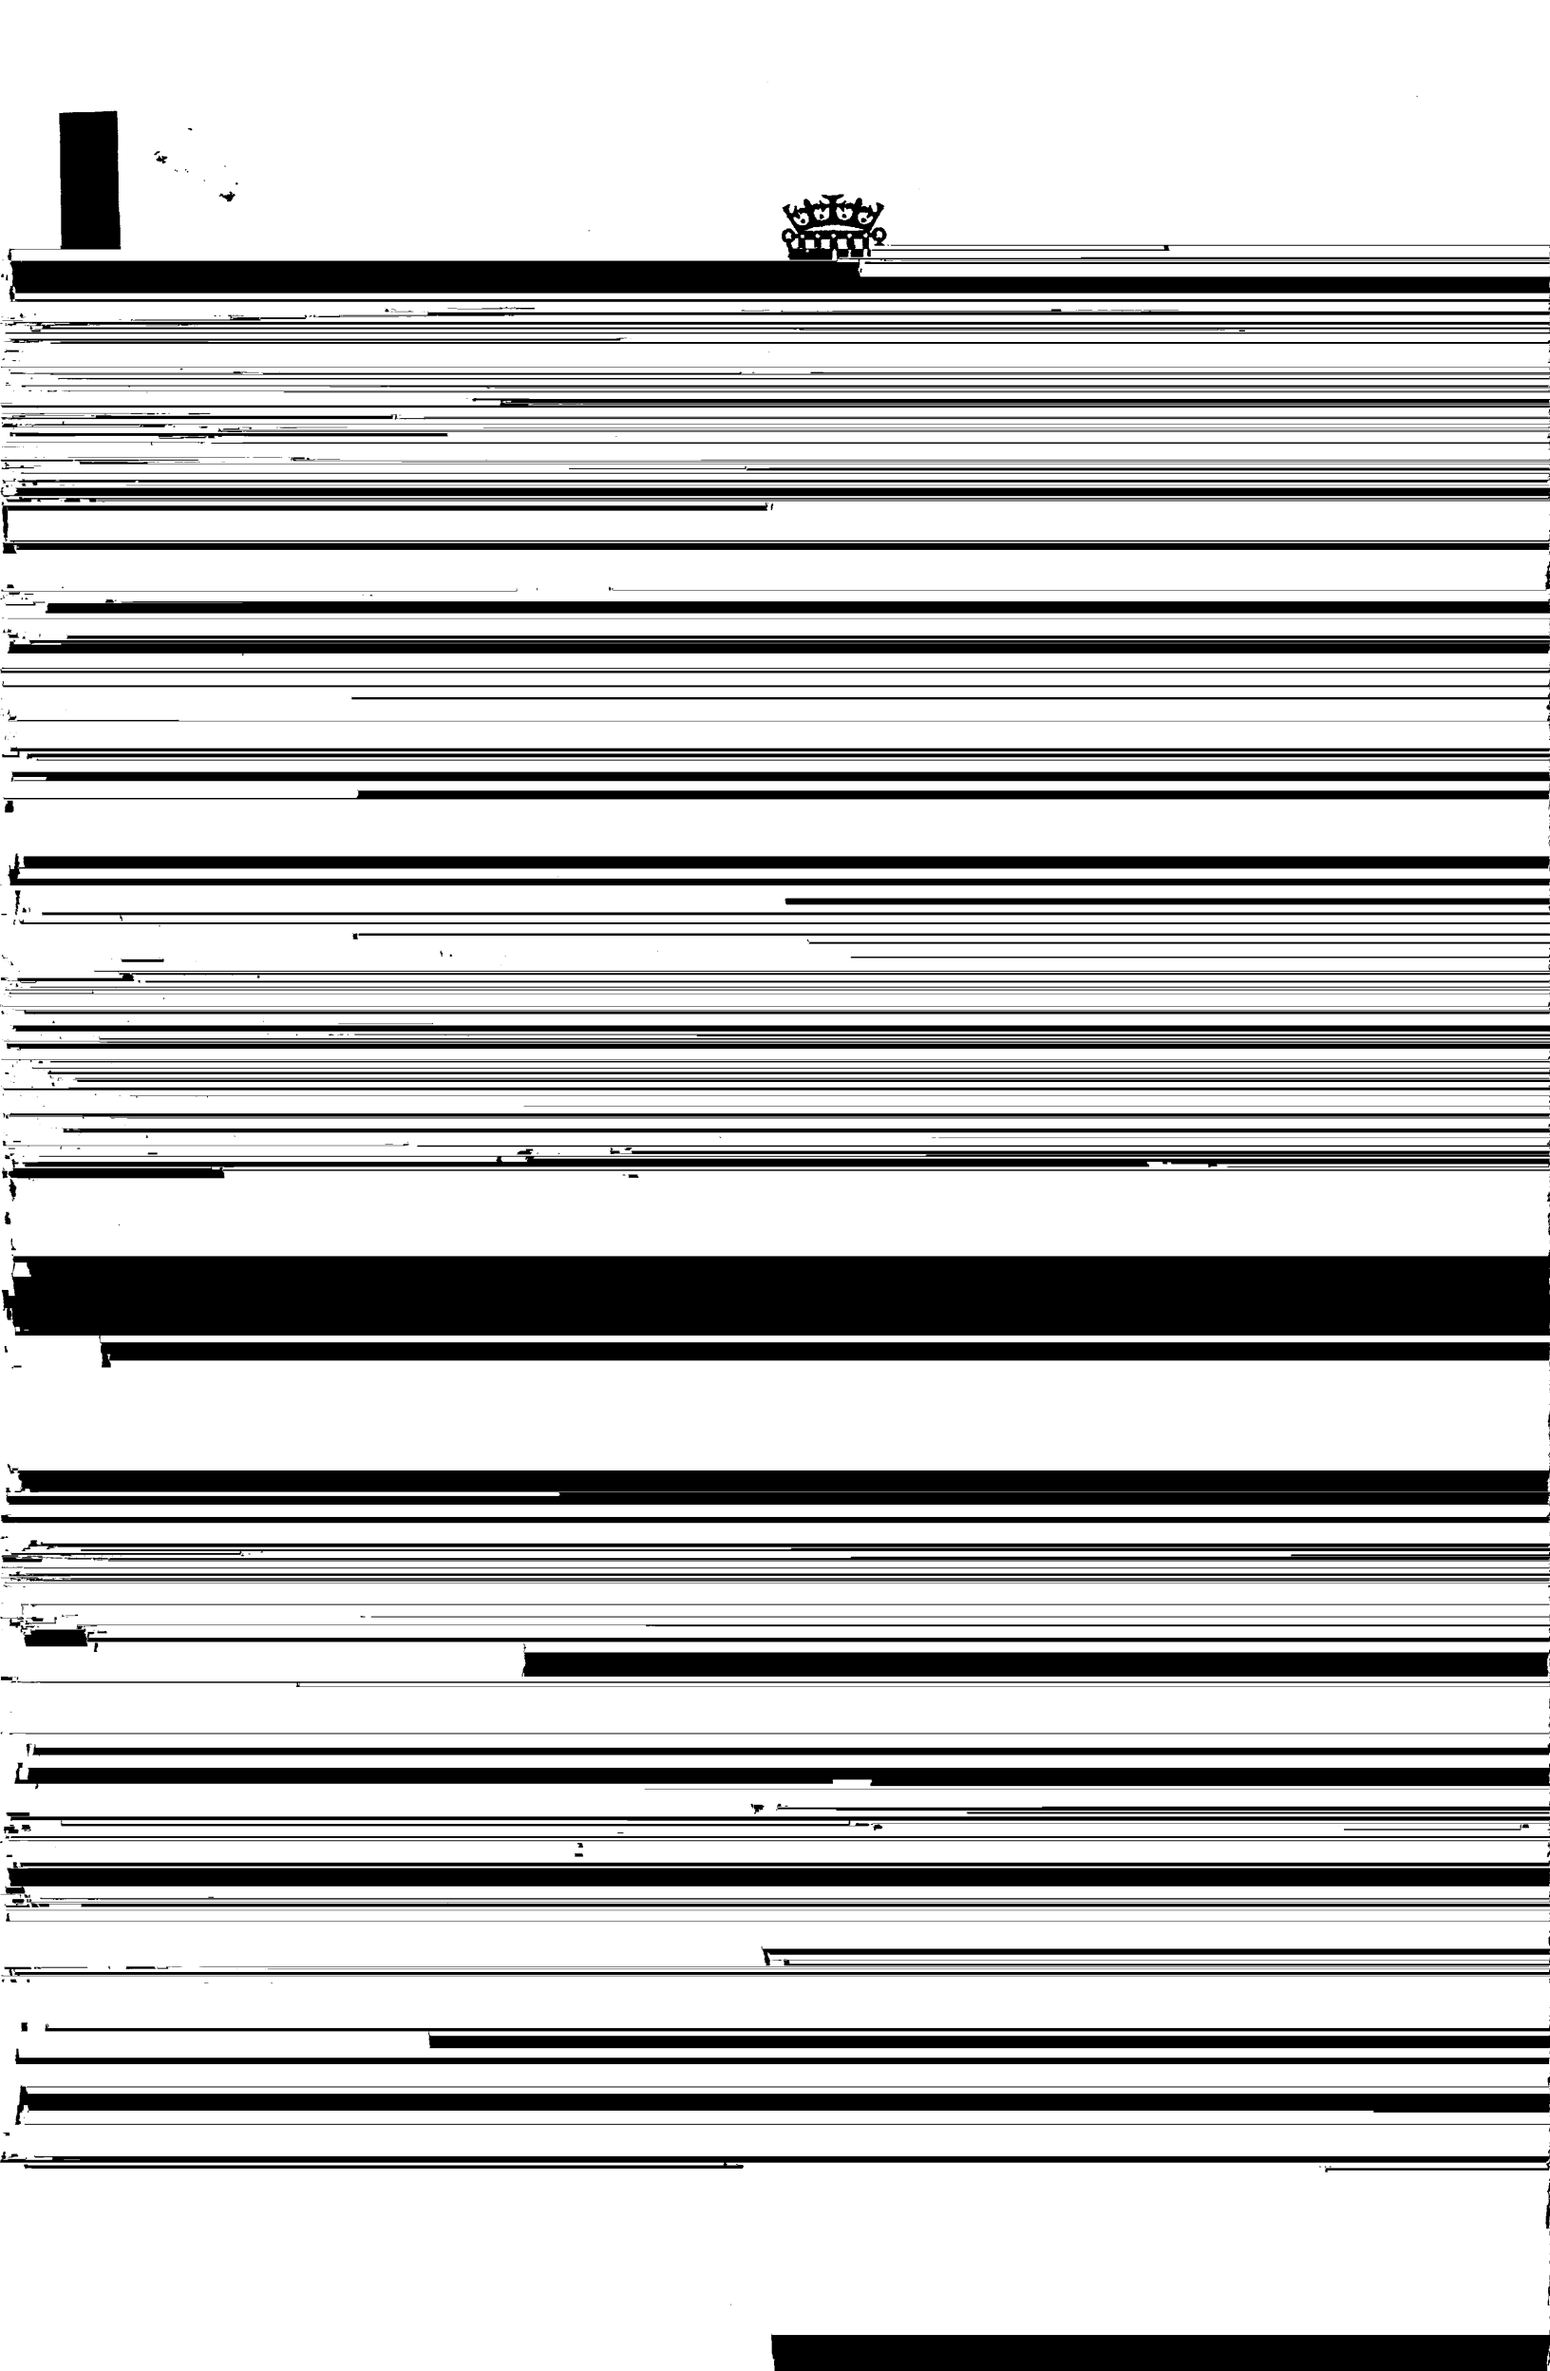
Rt Hon Lord Peter Mandelson

reasonably priced. The digital market is not the same as the offline market and

Orange also believes that most remedies against repeat infringers, would in practice

Better Regulation

Orange considers that it would disproportionate and discriminatory to impose



Print

Subject: Letter from your constituent

Your constituent is right to point out the potential [redacted]

As a final safeguard, this activity would be underpinned by a Code overseen [redacted] independent regulator the Office of Communications (Ofcom). A key

Mark Lazarowicz MP

Member of Parliament for Edinburgh North & Leith

[redacted]

Email: [redacted]

Tuesday 25 August 2009

Hi Mark,

I am writing regarding the Laws proposed under the P2P file sharing legislation.

Even though this decision was ruled out by the governments own digital Britain report in June this proposal is still being put forward.
Why should a whole household be punished for the actions of one member?
for example if my flatmate was "accused" of file sharing I would lose my connection to the internet [redacted]

BIS | Department for Business Innovation & Skills

The Rt Hon Stephen Timms MP

Minister for Digital Britain

Our ref: SW/14940

Your ref:

Mark Lazarowicz MP
House of Commons
London
SW1A 0AA

September 2009

Dear Mark

Thank you for your letter of 28 August to Peter Mandelson, enclosing correspondence from your constituent, [redacted] about possible Government action to

As a final safeguard, this activity would be underpinned by a Code overseen

We recognise that any solution must protect individuals' privacy. The Government will build in safeguards to ensure the rights of the consumer are protected, and will also ensure policy proposals comply with relevant data

[redacted]

BIS | Department for Business Innovation & Skills
The Rt Hon Stephen Timms MP
Minister for Digital Britain

Ben Bradshaw MP
House of Commons
London
SW1A 0AA

Our ref: SW/153465
Your ref: PALI002/083500

19 October 2009

Dear Ben

Thank you for your letter of 7 September to [redacted], enclosing correspondence from your constituent, [redacted] Exeter [redacted], about possible Government action to prevent unlawful downloading from the internet. I am replying as this matter falls within my portfolio and apologise for the delay.

[redacted]

We propose to legislate to ensure that consumers whose broadband account has been identified in connection with alleged copyright infringement would be alerted by letter. This would set out [illegible]

We added account suspension to the list of possible technical measures

There are already some examples of new business models emerging – such as Radiohead allowing fans to decide what to pay for an online copy, Paul McCartney's agreement with

DIANE ABBOTT

13 OCT

BIS | Department for Business Innovation & Skills

The Rt Hon Stephen Timms MP
Minister for Digital Britain

Diane Abbott MP
House of Commons
London
SW1A 0AA

Our ref: DH/153673
Your ref: [redacted]065

October 2009

Dear Diane

Thank you for your letter of 18 September to Peter Mandelson, on the behalf of your constituent [redacted], about possible Government action to prevent

http://www.dcms.gov.uk/what_we_do/broadcasting/5631.aspx

We propose to legislate to ensure that consumers [redacted]

However, it is not possible to look at file-sharing in isolation. There is also the