1. NOTES OF THE LAST MEETING

- x The meeting notes of the last BLG annual meeting of 23 November 2021 were circulated ahead of the meeting and were approved. These meeting notes do not purport to be a full record merely a note of the conclusions in action points.

2. RETROSPECTIVE FOR 2022

Northern Ireland Assembly

- x There was a discussion among the members in respect of the Northern Ireland Assembly elections on 8 May 2022 and the possibility of further Assembly elections in the next 12 months.
- x Members discussed one complaint and other communications relating to the allocation of PEBs.

English Locals

- x Members discussed issues in respect of PEBs being delivered late.
- x Members noted that it was the responsibility of the parties to meet any requirements imposed on production of PEBs by applicable legislation e.g. when working with children.

Scotland Locals

- x Members discussed continued issues with late delivery but were grateful for parties sending viewing copies of PEBs.
- x There were concerns about content of some of the parties' PEBs which Members agreed in these circumstances were an issue for the relevant parties and not the broadcasters.
- x Members considered that the BLG guidelines should be pro-actively given to independent production companies by political parties
- x Members discussed the impact of the last minute withdrawal of candidates on a party's potential qualification for a PEB.

Welsh Locals

- x Similar issues were experienced to those seen in local elections in

6. MATTERS ARISING

- x Members discussed a project being undertaken by a university professor to study PEBs in advance of the centenary in 2024.

7. LOOKING FORWARD

- x In 2023 there would be the following elections:
  - o English Local Election
  - o Northern Ireland Local Elections
- x Members also discussed the possibility of further unscheduled elections
- x The broadcasters discussed the timing of each broadcaster finalising their proposed allocation criteria for the PEB and notifying the parties of the same. It is always a matter for each broadcaster on how they want to decide such an issue and the broadcasts allocated to each qualifying party.

8. PRODUCTION GUIDELINES

- x Members considered whether the guidelines could be clarified in respect of the restriction on explicit references to a candidate's constituency where that individual featured in the party broadcast.
- x Updates would be made in respect of references to European Elections and major news events, noting that broadcasters have the right to reschedule.
- x Guidelines would be reviewed in respect of material not being delivered to the correct technical specifications and providing correct releases and communications.

9. BLG WEBSITE

- x Members discussed adding FAQs to the website and undertaking a health check for broken hyperlinks.

8. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

- x Members agreed that the annual meeting should continue to be in person but that they would reconvene virtually if there was an unscheduled event or election before the next annual BLG meeting.
