The BBC answered over 10,000 complaints from the audience during May 2008. These ranged from a small number of complaints about potentially serious breaches of editorial guidelines through to a much larger collection of views about programme content and scheduling. The key themes which emerged are as follows:

Complaint About The BBC

Complaints were answered from people who felt that the ticket allocation for Radio 1's Big Weekend 10-11 May 2008 was unfair.

Bad Language

Complaints were answered from people unhappy with the use of the 'f' word during Friday Night With Jonathan Ross tx 2 May.

Standards Of Interviewing and Presentation

Some viewers were unhappy with the tongue-in-cheek style of commentary during Eurovision Song Contest 2008.

Complaints were also answered from listeners who felt the Today interview with Gordon Brown tx 15 May was too aggressive.

Bias

Complaints were answered from people who felt the Auroville report broadcast on Newsnight tx 21 May and From Our Own Correspondent tx 24 May was inaccurate and biased.

Poor Quality

Some viewers felt that insufficient time was given to the performances during BBC Young Musician of the Year.
